

Exhibit A

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE THIRTIETH JUDICIAL DISTRICT AT MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

Comcast, and Reginald Falkner Defendants

the General Session Criminal Court that same day to represent her on a new charge of Escape of Misdemeanor incarceration she had received on February 21st 2014 {see attachment}.

7. The Escape of Misdemeanor Incarceration charge stemmed from a Contempt of Court from Civil Court Division II before the Honorable Judge Phyllis Gardner.
8. I learned that Ms. Moses was the Plaintiff in a civil case against Comcast, in that case.
9. I was never specifically told from anyone including Attorney Christopher Martin what Mrs. Moses did to be held in "Contempt of Court".
10. I informed Attorney Martin that she could appeal that matter and bond should be set for her to be released because it was a civil case.
11. At that moment Attorney Martin then informed me that he would to the Civil General Sessions Filing counter and obtain a notice of appeal form to be filed immediately.
12. Mr. Martin informed me that he also tried to speak with the judge in regards to Ms. Moses to have her released but Judge Phyllis Gardner would not to talk to him, and took a sudden leave of absence for ten days.
13. Attorney Christopher Martin then brought the Appeal form back to Ms. Moses while in custody and had her fill the document the pertinent information and signed the appeal form in the courtroom in my presence.
14. Attorney Martin made a copy and gave it to me, and I gave it to Ms. Moses and told her to keep for her records.
15. Attorney Christopher Martin then took the form back to the Civil General Sessions Filing counter and filed Ms. Moses notice of appeal on her behalf.

16. This was done timely on February 24th around 11:45 am.

17. I am prepared to testify to all of these facts stated above if needed.
